BAIL SUPERVISION

Interventions suitable for	Available to age 16+ following suitability assessment
Programme Title and Provider	Bail supervision
Details of all Specific national or local scheme/intervention(s) available	Bail supervision helps minimise the numbers of individuals held on remand in custody pending trial or for reports after conviction who, subject to safeguards in respect of public protection, could be released on bail to the community pending their further court hearing.
Possible Outcomes	If the accused has unresolved trauma issues or other complex needs, then Bail Supervision provides an important early intervention opportunity to address needs and maintain compliance with bail conditions.
Process for Assessment and/or inclusion in scheme/intervention	Available to age 16+ following suitability assessment

Interventions suitable for	No information specified
Programme Title and Provider	Unpaid work
Details of all Specific national or local scheme/intervention(s) available	Unpaid Work is undertaken either as part of a task squad completing work projects requested by individuals, community groups, and charitable organisations or as an individual placement within a voluntary agency. Delivery is also offered through the APEX online training platform up to 30% of hours.
Possible Outcomes	Unpaid work in Clackmannanshire normally links directly with specialist employability support provided by Apex Scotland. This service seeks to build on the routine, structure and learned work skills as transferrable employability attributes to create a safe and suitable pathway to employment. Unpaid work also has an important restorative contribution
Process for Assessment and/or inclusion in scheme/intervention	Court mandated, normally in line with recommendations of Criminal Justice Social Work Report (CJSWR).
